I'll never forget the crushing pain, grief and sense of loss I experienced when my father died. I looked for ways to cope and fortunately found them. Now I feel closer than ever to the man who was, to me, the greatest guy in the world. The grief is gone. In its place is comfort, support, strength, inspiration and the KNOWING that death need not end a loving relationship. This program has been a great help to many of my students. It is certain to provide great benefits to you as well.
